BELGIUM

Belgium Flemish Legion

Set of four sheetlets showing symbolic images of historic battle scenes. Issued in 1941 for the Flemish Legion on the Eastern Front.

C.T.O. with feldpost handstamp 23.12.41. Michel 1/1V.

The Flemish Legion was a collaborationist military formation recruited from Dutch-speaking volunteers, notably from Flanders. It was formed in the aftermath of the German invasion of the Soviet Union in June 1941 and fought on the Eastern Front in the Waffen SS alongside similar formations from other parts of German-occupied territory and other Nazi-sympathisers or anti-communists. Regarded as traitors by most Belgians
